Lieutenant General Walter Bedell Smith
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Smith:

As you know, I have recently had talks with Mr. Wismer, Mr. Dulles, and [redacted] concerning some of the matters I had in mind when I wrote you two or three weeks ago requesting an interview.

STAT

These talks have led me to believe that it is perhaps even more important than it formerly was that I see you sometime in the reasonably near future. I am hoping that your trip to Princeton will materialize and that you will include in it a visit with me for luncheon or otherwise.

Quite aside from official business, it would be a great pleasure to me to see you.

Sincerely yours,

STATOTHR
